

Jade Simmons Intro (Updated 5/14/20)

Rock star Concert Pianist, Powerhouse Keynote Speaker, and 2020 Independent Presidential Candidate, Jade Simmons, has led a life marked by innovation and purposeful reinvention. As a world-renowned classical pianist who has played at acclaimed halls such as the White House and US Supreme court, top-ranked transformational speaker, and business leader, she is driven by a desire to influence and inspire people to make the most impact and to be the biggest, boldest version of themselves possible.

She intentionally partners with purpose-based companies and organizations that have a track record of prioritizing the people who work for them and the customers they serve. From kids to corporate... with high-level leaders, college audiences, women's groups, arts, and faith-based programs in between, the result is always the same. She gets people to bring more of themselves to every single table, every single time.

Jade has built a colorful career characterized by what she calls Maverick Behavior, and on this occasion, she is thrilled to be reminding you that you get to choose the mark you leave on this world!

Please welcome to the stage, Classical Music's "No.1 Maverick," Jade Simmons.
